THE Shanghai Shen-pao is certainly one of the ablest and best written of the Chinese papers; it undoubtedly wields the greatest influence and enjoys the largest circulation. As a general rule, too, the views enunciated by it are progressive and enlightened, and it has contributed no little to form native opinion in North China. But even this Homer of the Chinese Press node occasionally, and in its issue of the 12th ultimo it gave expression to some remarks which are scarcely in harmony with the liberal ideas which usually re-engraved in a superior style and brought up animate the editorial columns. In the course of an article beaded "China should not let herself be deceived," the Shen-pao urges that the Chinese Government should not allow themselves to be unduly influenced by foreign advice, by which they are often deceived; and, referring to some remarks in the Daily Press of the 25th December last, in reference to the capabilities of Port Arthur. says that they were meant as " a scoff at the failure of Chinese enterprises." At the outset we beg most emphatically to deny that there was any such intention on our part. All well intended and patrictic A full Chronology of remarkable events since enterprises undertaken by the Chinese Government have invariably received our approval and sympathy, and cortainly not the less so because we have felt constrained sometimes to point out defects or to denounce jobs effected in the mode of carrying out these undertakings. The Shen-pao is ultra-sensitive. The danger is lest we be deceived by foreigners. Foreigners are all set on gain. The following letter to The Times relates to the complaint that steamers often charge less London when clearing from Chinese ports:-"London, December 26th. Sir.—In your money! article on the 23rd inst. you drew attention to the practice of stamors charging less freight to New York and the Continent than to London from China. This is a subject of considerable concerned, but to British commerce generally For some time this season in China, owing to the establishment for a new German line, the 'Conference' atomers have been charging £1 12s. 6d. per ton oi40 feet for tea to Hamburg, while the same seamers would not accept less than £3 per top of 40 feet to London. The steamers between Hamburg and London charge 6d per ton icluding forwarding commission. Is it possibe that the powerful companies forming the 'Caference' in China have reflected that in ther endeavour to rean a temporary advantage the are taking the first steps to alienate an imporant trade from English into German hands? He first arrived here as Secretary of Legation in 1878, and from March, 1881, to January, 1885, he was Chargé d'Affaires, and when he anticipated a well-earned leave absence, his acquaintance with the state of affairs here was too valuable to be lost, and he was retained as one of the Commissioners for the revi sion of the treaties. > The Cathau Advertiser, in recording the death, after a few days' illness, of inflammation of the bowels, of Mr. Johannes Hartwig Leffmann, head of the firm of Messrs. Puston & Co. at Shanghai, at the early age of 27, says:—To live well and die respected were the prominent features of his short career. Arriving in Shanghar when he had just attained manhood, h secured the respect and esteem of all those with whom he had business relations; and in social life, and as a lover of outdoor sports he endeared himself to all those with whom he came incontact. The sudden and untimely death of one so robust and energetic as a member of the Light Herse Brigade, a paper hunter, and a rider at the Races, has been deployed, and the respect shown to his memory by the numerous gathering of gentlemen who followed hi mortal remains to their last resting place at the New Cometery has perhaps never been surpassed in this cosmopolitan community. Mr. Leffmann was a Gorman, and his nationals demonstrated the respect in which he was held in a truly noble manner. The little church at the Cemetery was crowded with residents. The Rev. F. R. Smith, of Trinity Cathedral, was the officiating clergyman, and delivered an address at the close of the service after which the members of the German Liedertafel assembled round the coffin and sang a funeral dirge in a solemn and impressive manuer. The five main floors rest on iron girders supported by iron columns. As the columns which were in when the property was burchased were considered insufficient in strength to carry the heavy weight which will be placed on the upper floors when used for storage purposes it was determined to replace them by more massive ones, and it was found that these could be obtained from the Dock Company on more advantageous terms than by sending home for them, the price being very little more while the quality of the iron used is much superior to that usually put into similar work. The columns on the lower floor are 9in. in diameter, those on the upper floors diminishing in size with each storey. There is a lift for the moving of goods to and from the different flats, and the place is being fitted with all the requisite conveniences both in the godown and working departments. A portion of the top floor is to be converted into a laboratory, and the attic will be used as the carpenter's shop.

The bowling of the Cricket Club, especially Barff's, was very good, but the steady batting of Leach, Chater, and Coxon overpowered it, and the Ladies put together the fair total of 141 in their firstinnings. This was not an overwhelming score and the cricketers were not without hopes of beating it, but in this they failed miserably no one making any stand against Travers and Leach except Grimble, who put together 15 in his usual style. The Club had then to follow their innings, and when the stumps were drawn they had lost 7 wickets for 65 runs, Wilson and Dunman doing best.

HONGKONG AND CHINA BAKERY COMPANY, LIMITED.

The following is the report of the General Managers to the shareholders, at the fourteenth ordinary general meeting of the Company, to be held on Friday, the 19th inst., at 4.30 o'clock

The General Managers have the pleasure to submit to the shareholders the usual statement of accounts for the year anding 31st December last. The special repairs, for which the sum of $2,500 was voted at the last general meeting, have been satisfactorily completed and the building plant and machinery of the company are now in good order.

The net profit on the working account for this year (including the unused balance of special repairs nocount $478.40) is $5,588.61, and the balance at credit of profit and loss account is $5,990.66. The General Managers believe that the shareholders will consider this outturn as eatisfactory: the special oironmstances which enabled the company to earn so largely during the two previous years having come to an end early in 1885.

The General Managers recommend that a dividend of $8 per share be declared, absorbing $1,800, that a further $500 be written off real estate account, and that the balance $630.68 be carried to new account. The Consulting Committee-Mesers. T. T. Benning

DEATH OF MRS. G. A. SALA. MELBOURNE, 31st Decomber. Mrs. G. A. Sala died this morning at Monzies Hotel after an illness extending over thirty-six hours. The deceased lady returned to Melwhere she was to be joined by Mr. Sala in time to proceed home to England in the R. M. S. night, however, Mrs. Sala was attacked with peritonitis. Dr. Robertson was called in early, and Dr. James was afterwards with him in consultation, but she gradually became worse, until Mrs. Sala and had proceeded to Sydney, to wind--up some business there, arrived in Melbourne by express train from Sydney on Wednesday about noon to find his wife dangerously ill Every attention was paid to the deceased lady by Mrs. Menzies, who never left the bedside of the patient during her whole illness." The funeral took place this evening in the Melbourne General Cometery. Mr. Sala feels his loss most poignantly. He was married for twenty-five years, and Mrs. Sala had travelled with him over the mountains of India, the steppes of Russia. February next, and will at once proceed to the States of America and all other parts of the world which he had visited.
